

Michelle Rodriguez, Esq.

Michelle Rodriguez has been a practicing immigration attorney in New York for more than 20 years. In 2010, she joined and currently sits as a Hearing Officer for the New York City Office of Trials and Hearings where she conducts and reviews Taxi and Limousine violations. In 2008, she sat as an elected Corresponding Secretary for the Puerto Rican Bar Association. Presently, she represents clients in removal and deportation proceedings as well as those who seek juvenile status in Family Court.

She received her Juris Doctorate at Hofstra Law School and her Bachelors of Arts in Spanish and Russian at New York University. Since 1996, she has provided community counseling in respect to immigration to various organizations and City University of New York sponsored programs including the immigration counseling at St. Paul's Evangelical Church, the New York Foundation of Senior Citizens Guardian Services, the New York Council on Adoptable Children and other various charitable groups.